

Denominational Resources for Accessible Worship

While far from exhaustive, this collection of denominational resources will hopefully provide you with ideas and inspiration to make your church more accessible and welcoming.

The Lord's Supper, Communion, Eucharist

Christian Reformed Church

- Inclusive Communion by Mark Stephenson

Lutheran

- Bethesda Lutheran Communities— Curriculum designed to support first communion and confirmation instruction for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Resources for Disability Awareness

Multi-Denominational

- Disability Awareness Sunday by Joni and Friends
- Making Worship Accessible for Persons with Disabilities from Calvin College

Lutheran

- Rejoicing Spirits: a ministry that equips churches to host monthly worship services for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities along with their families, friends and other supportive community members.
- Worship at the Cross from The Lutheran Home Association: Services designed to make each part of a worship service have special meaning, especially for people with cognitive impairments.
- Wisconsin Lutheran Special Needs Resource Center

United Methodist Church

- Disability Awareness Sunday from the UMC

Christian Reformed Church

- Disability Awareness Sunday from the Christian Reformed Church